One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the Subscriber, on Tuesday the second of this inst. April, living in Kent county, Maryland, near Chester Town, the following described Negroes, viz. William, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, a yellowish complexioned fellow, about thirty years of age, formerly the property of doctor William Matthews, he has been very much given to running away, and has been so often described in the public papers within this twelve months that any further description of him seems needless.—Jacob, about 6 feet high, and about 32 years of age, of a common Negroe complection, down look, his little finger of his left hand stands straight, occasioned by the cut of a sickle. Patt, the wife of said Jacob, about 27 years of age, a small light made woman of a yellowish complection, with thick lips for an American of her stature, she is a very good needle woman, and spins on either small or great wheel, and is very handy in any common house work.—Two children of the said Jacob's and Patt's, the one a male child about four years old, the other a female child about two years old. The above described Negroes took with them, besides their own wearing apparel, three coats, two of which were linsey cloth of a light grey color, both new; one of the two was a great deal too large for either of the said fellows; the other coat of brown cloth, half worn; three under jackets, one a velvet, another a drab, the other a light colored linsey cloth do, one new pair of Calf skin shoes, lined with linnen and bound with leather, one pair of boots remarkably large in the legs, several pairs of stockings and a silver watch, all stolen: their own wearing apparel as follows—William had on a light-horse regimental coat worked with silver twist, (which coat he had when he was brought home to me the first of February last, a round sailor jacket (blue,) thickset breeches, patched with corduroy in the stride, with other necessary clothing. Jacob, two linsey cloth coatees, lead colored, one new the other half worn, blue linsey cloth jacket, half worn, two pairs of linsey cloth trowsers, of a lead colour, the one new the other half worn, tolerable good shoes and stockings. Patt has every day cloathing, and her children wore home-made linen and linsey, her other cloathing not so well known; it is uncertain which course they may take, as William is such an experienced coaster.

Any person or persons apprehending said negroes or sounding them, so that their master may get them again, shall be entitled to the above reward, or in proportion for either of them, that is to say, 40 dollars for each of the fellows, and twenty dollars for the wench and children, and if brought home, all reasonable charges paid by

THE undersigned having examined Jacob Perkin's new invented method to detect counterfeit Bank paper, do approve of the plan, it being impossible to engrave or sink two plates perfectly alike, without the original die or hub, the counterfeiter would find it impossible to make an impression which would perfectly gage with the check from the original die.

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 19.

BY THE PRESIDENT
Of the UNITED STATES of AMERICA,

A Proclamation.

AS no truth is more clearly taught in the volume of inspiration, nor any more fully demonstrated by the experience of all ages, than that a deep sense and a due acknowledgment of the governing providence of a Supreme being and of the accountableness of men to Him as the searcher of hearts and righteous distributor of rewards and punishments, are conducive, equally to the happiness and rectitude of individuals and to the well being of communities; as it is, also, most reasonable in itself, that men who are made capable of social acts and relations, who owe their improvements to the social state, and who derive their enjoyments from it, should, as a society, make their acknowledgments of dependance and obligation to Him who hath endued them with these capacities, and elevated them in the scale of existence, by these distinctions; as it is, likewise, a plain dictate of duty, and a strong sentiment of nature, that in circumstances of great urgency and seasons of imminent danger, earnest and particular supplications should be made to Him who is able to defend or to destroy; as, moreover, the most precious interests of the people of the United States are still held in jeopardy, by the hostile designs and insidious arts of a foreign nation, as well as by the dissemination among them of those principles subversive of the foundations of all religious, moral and social obligations, that have produced incalculable mischief and misery in other countries; and as, in fine, the observance of special seasons for public religious solemnities, is happily calculated to avert the evils which we ought to deprecate, and to excite to the performance of the duties which we ought to discharge,—by calling and fixing the attention of the people at large to the momentous truths already recited, by affording opportunity to teach and inculcate them, by animating devotion and giving to it the character of a national act:—For these reasons I have thought proper to recommend, and I do hereby recommend accordingly, that Thursday, the 25th day of April next, be observed, throughout the United States of America, as a day of solemn humiliation, fasting and prayer—That citizens, on that day, abstaining as far as may be from their secular occupations, devote the time to the sacred duties of religion, in public and in private. That they call to mind our numerous offences against the most High GOD, confess them before him with the sincerest penitence, implore his pardoning mercy, through the great Mediator and Redeemer, for our past transgressions, and that, thro' the grace of his Holy Spirit, we may be disposed and enabled to yield a more suitable obedience to his righteous requisitions in time to come: That he would interpose to arrest the progress of that impiety and licentiousness in principle and practice, so offensive to himself and so ruinous to mankind: That he would make us deeply sensible that "righteousness exalteth a nation, but that sin is the reproach of any people:" That he would turn us from our transgressions and turn his displeasure from us: That he would withhold us from unreasonable discontent—from disunion, faction, sedition and insurrection: That he would preserve our country from the desolating sword: That he would save our cities and towns from a repetition of those awful pestilential visitations under which they have lately suffered so severely, and that the health of our inhabitants generally, may be precious in his sight: That he would favor us with fruitful seasons, and so bless the labors of the husbandman as that there may be food in abundance for man and beast: That he would prosper our commerce, manufactures and fisheries, and give success to the people in all their lawful industry and enterprize: That he would smile on our colleges, academies, schools and seminaries of learning, and make them nurseries of sound science, morals and religion: That he would bless all magistrates from the highest to the lowest, give them the true spirit of their station, make them a terror to evil doers and a praise to them that do well: That he would preside over the councils of the nation at this critical period, enlighten them to a just discernment of the public interest, and save them from mistake, division and discord: That he would succeed our preparations for defence, and bless our armaments by land and by sea: That he would put an end to the effusion of human blood, and the accumulation of human misery, among the contending nations of the earth, by disposing them to justice, to equity, to benevolence and to peace: And that he would extend the blessings of knowledge, of true liberty, and of pure and undefiled religion, throughout the world.

And I do, also, recommend that with these acts of humiliation, penitence and prayer, fervent thanksgiving to the author of all good be united, for the countless favors which he is still continuing to the people of the United States, and which render their condition as a nation eminently happy, when compared with the lot of others.

Given under my hand and the seal of the United States of America, at the city of Philadelphia, this sixth day of March in the year (L. S.) of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, and of the Independence of the said states the twenty-third.

JOHN ADAMS.

By the President,
TIMOTHY PICKERING,
Secretary of State.

Yesterday arrived the ship Connecticut, capt. Hylander, from London. She sailed from the Isle of Wight, March 6, with a fleet of 150 sail, for the West-Indies, convoyed by two sloops of war, in company with the Sally, Lockyer, of this port, the Fox and Minerva, for Charleston, and the George for Baltimore. Captain Hylander brought but few late papers; the last we have seen is of the 24th of February, extracts from which follow. In addition, we learn, that the projected union of England and Ireland was for the present postponed: that Lieutenant General Cuyler, was appointed commander in chief of the British troops destined for Portugal, and General Tarleton to command the cavalry:—that the winter had been very severe in England, the Thames having been frozen over, and much damage sustained it in different parts of the country, and on the sea coast. [Am. D. Adv.

LONDON, February 24.

The loss of the following vessels was yesterday announced in the city: viz. the Aurora, from Savannah, and the Republican, from Baltimore; both for London, taken and sent into Corunna.

An epidemic fever has occasioned considerable mortality on board the Russian ships at Sheerness—it has, however wholly subsided.

The convoy which is appointed on the 10th of March, to sail for America, is to take all vessels which may be ready at Cork.

Twelve Hamburg Mails are due this morning; the late Westwardly winds, it is believed, must have tended materially to open the navigation of the Elbe.

The packet which lately attempted to reach the continent, was furnished with ice boats, &c. but the extreme irregularity of the surface which the frozen sea presented, rendered them useless.

The 1st West York regiment have volunteered their services for Ireland.

The Pembrokeshire, Glamorganshire, and first West York regiments of militia have volunteered their services in Ireland.

The Fifeshire Fencible Cavalry are shortly to embark for Portugal.

His majesty has accepted the tender of service made by the Cambridgshire militia, and they are under orders for Ireland, to relieve the Buckinghamshire regiment.

The vessel with troops, which in our last we mentioned to have been lost near Amlwch in Wales, proves to be the Friendship transport from Liverpool, bound for Newry, with part of the Lancashire Fencible Cavalry,—We are pained to add, all on board perished.

The Dublin Mail of the 19th inst. arrived yesterday. It mentions some fresh disturbances to have broken out in in the county of Wicklow which continues to be harrassed by a band of ruffians, under the command of a fellow named Dwyer. On the Saturday preceding, a party of them was attacked near Rathville by a patrole of the Glengary fencibles; a very severe contest ensued which ended in the discomfiture of the Rebels, six of whom were killed, and sixteen taken, with eleven musquets, several pistols, swords, and bayonets, and have been conveyed to Baltinglass. Of the military, a corporal was killed, and two privates dangerously wounded.

The various accounts that the French had effected a landing on the north-west coast of Ireland, prove to have been entirely unfounded.

A letter received by the last mail from an officer in the Dorsetshire militia, quartered at Carrick on Suir, represents the counties of Tipperary, Kilkenny and Waterford in a state of extreme agitation, in consequence of the Union having been proposed and expresses much apprehension that the flame which appeared to have totally subsided would again break out, by the attempt which it was stated would be made to carry the obnoxious measure. Inflammatory songs were dispersed through every part of the country, and the known, or supposed supporters of the Union, treated in the most indecorous manner.

Whatever may ultimately result from the proposition of a legislative union with Ireland its effects hitherto in that country have been to unite interests till then violently hostile. We have reason to believe that government will not press the measure during the present sessions of the Irish parliament. It is possible its now oponents may view it in a different light by the meeting of the next. But we would not so far libel the wisdom of the minister as to give a momentary credence to the report that he purposed, in the event of the failure of negociation, to resort to other methods; the inevitable consequence of which, if it were possible to admit the first position, we should not hesitate to pronounce, would be—universal, effective and eventful resistance.

A considerable number of persons apprehended in Ireland, on suspicion of treason, have lately arrived at Chatham, for the purpose of being dispersed amongst the regiments on foreign service. Many of them wore the rebel uniform; and those so habituated, were some days since stripped on the parade, and their dress burnt.

Thomas Muir, the infamous Scotch Advocate, transported to Botany Bay for sedition, but who escaped from thence, died at Paris the 3d instant.

Several emigrants in this country, among whom is the Abbe de Calonne, are about to go to St. John's Island, in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, to form an agricultural establishment under the auspices of the British government: the settlement is in future to be called Prince Edward's Island.

Prince Edward is shortly to be created a peer, by the title of the Duke of Kent.

The late Frederick, Prince of Orange, was buried with great military pomp on the 10th ult.

French Finance.—A message sent to the Council of Five Hundred on the 2d inst. states, "that the expence of the public service are considerably beyond the receipts of the revenue; that there has been a deficit of 43,778,262 livres in the receipts of the first quarter that the beginning of the second quarter (the present one) is equally alarming and that of receiving 14,974,222 livres in every decade, the Commissioners of the National Treasury could not even obtain [illegible] 000 000." The message concludes in the following manner: The subsistence of the armies is no longer certain; the Navy has very few provisions, or is entirely without them; the salaries of the servants of the public are four months in arrear; the hospitals are in a state of the greatest distress for want of relief the most urgent payments are suspended; the public credit is every day diminishing and the public service exposed to a fatal and approaching catastrophe."

Whitehall Feb. 19.

The king has pleased to constitute and appoint the right honorable Ralph Lord Lavington, of the kingdom of Ireland, K. B. to be captain-general and governor in chief in and over the itlands of Nevis, St. Christopher, Montserat, Antigua, Barbuda, Anguilla, and all other countries and plantations in America, commonly called or known by the name of the Caribbee Islands.

Tuesday morning an account was received at Lloyd's of the capture of his majesty's ship Orpheus, of 32 guns, and the Fox, of do by a French squadron in the East Indies; but no official account is yet received at the Admiralty of these losses.

It is with great concern we mention the general anxiety that prevails respecting the fate of the Proserpine frigate, in which the Hon. Thos. Grenville and his suite embarked from Yarmouth, on the 28th ult. bound for the Elbe. An extract from a letter written by Capt. Hearne, of the Prince of Wales Packet to Mr. Warmington, agent for the Pacquets at Yarmouth, contains the following alarming accounts on this very interesting occasion:

"The Proserpine frigate arrived at Helligoland the 2d inst. took on board a pilot, proceeded to the Elbe, and came to anchor within the Entrance. Two days after she was seen on shore from Helligoland, in great distress, and the three days and nights following was constantly firing signals of distress, with her topmast struck. The Director of the Post-Office of Helligoland told me, that no boat nor vessel could go to her assistance; and on the 29th inst. the ice being three leagues without Helligoland, she could no longer be seen."

Mr. Grenville's suite consisted of his nephew, Mr. Williams Wynne; Mr. Fisher, his secretary; Messrs. Mason and Shaw, king's messengers; and Mr. Daintry, interpreter of the Prussian language. Mr. Wiffin, the messenger was dispatched to Yarmouth, Thursday night, to procure, if possible, any further information.

A report prevailed in Ireland, as appears by the Dublin papers of the 18th inst. that several French ships of war, had been seen off the coast; but there is no certain account of the enemy having made any attempt to land.

DUBLIN, Feb. 13.

Monday at one o'clock, pursuant to an act of the house of commons, three publications of the Sun, of the 28th 29th and 30th ult. were burnt, in colledge green, by the hands of the common executioner. The sheriffs of the city and a military guard attended. The concourse of spectators assembled on this occasion was immense. At the burning of each paper which was seperately done, the croud gave three huzzas. On the same day a wag wrote on the front door of the house of Commons—"The NEW-SUN-FIRE-OFFICE, by O Donnel and co."

In consequence of numerous late outrages in the county of Galaway, it has been proclaimed in a state of rebellion.

A letter from Cork says, "Notwithstanding the corporation of this city addressed goverument in favour of an union, the bells were rung, and innumerable bonfires lit up, the moment the news arrived here of the rejection of the measure in our common House of Parliament.

SALEM, April 12.

On Tuesday arrived here the brig Eliza, Capt. John Carlton, from Corunna, which he left the 25th Feb. Left there the ship Belvidere, Frankford, Philadelphia, to sail in 10 days, destination unknown; brig Good Hope, Neal, of Salem, cargo one third landed, to sail for the Havanna in about 4 weeks; brig Brothers, Brown, Boston, part of her cargo landed, destination unknown.—— Jan. 22, sch'r Hannah, Barker, of Marblehead, sailed from Corunna for Lisbon.—— From Jan. 10 to 20th, five American vessels were carried into Corunna as prizes, and condemned by the French consul, viz. the Pacific, Kennedy, from London for Charleston; the Aurora, from Savannah for London; the Sarah, from New-York for London; the Republican, from Baltimore for England; the Eagle, from New Bedford for Leghorn. They had no articles but American produce on board, and their papers were perfectly clear.—Feb. 15. La Pensée frigate of 44 guns arrived from Guadaloupe, on board of which was Victor Hugues: eleven days after this ship sailed, they had a very heavy gale of wind, in which they threw over all their guns, yards and topmasts, and could scarce keep the ship above water: after she arrived at Corunna, a large number of Spaniards were put on board to keep her from sinking. Victor set out for France the 20th by way of Madrid. It was said he carried immense riches with him from Guadaloupe. The Bellegarde, 16 gun ship, sailed the 23d Feb. on a cruise, and the Mars, of 22 guns, the next day: and four French privateers remained at Corunna.

Feb. 28 lat. 44 25, long 16, fell in with the ship Flying Fish, of Bayonne, mounting 16 guns; went on board, and saw there one English captain that had been taken, the mate and 4 seaman belonging to the brig Betsey, Wyer, of Newyork, taken on her passage from Newyork for St. Sebastian's, the captain and boy being sent in the brig to St. Andrews's. Took on board the above mate and seamen, by request of the French captain. Carlton's vessel being in ballast, did not think her worth making a prize of—— March 31, lat. 42 18, long 57, 30, spoke brig Two Sisters, Pinkham, from Newyork for Londonderry, 9 days out.

BALTIMORE, April 17.

Arrived this morning, brig George, capt. Higgins, 35 days from Cowes.

We have been favored withpapers bro't by the George, of the 1st and 2d March, but find in them nothing entitled to attention. We are promised some papers of anterior dates, when we hope to be able to lay before our readers a regular chain of intelligence, from the dates before received.

The Cork fleet were to sail under convoy for America, the 16th of March. A fleet of 10 sail of armed Americans, for different ports, but none for this, were to leave the Downs the 5th March, the day after capt. H. left Cowes, under convoy of the ship Connecticut, of 20 guns, of Philadelphia.

The Morning Herald of the first March, mentions the arrival of the Ann, Johnson, of this port, at Dover.

The Morning Chronicle of the 2d March contains nothing but parliamentary debates on local subjects, and bitter complaints for being locked up from the news of the continent, by frozen rivers and the non-arrival of the Hamburg mail, for a long time.

The news of Loring's insulting treatment of our flag had been received in London, and had excited much sensibility; and it was confidently asserted he would be broke.

NEW-YORK, April 18.

We are sorry to state, on the the authority of a letter from the Havannah, dated the 4th ult. to a respectable merchant in this city, that the ship Ocean, Capt. Kemp, from this port to Havanna, after a severe engagement with two French Privateers, fell into their possession—and that the Captain, and all the crew, except four, were inhumanly put to death, after she was taken by these monstrous savages. [We took considerable pains to get a sight of the letter but could not.]

Yesterday afternoon arrived here from Laguira, the ship Washington catain Packwood, who brought out 11 of the Cleopatra's seamen, lately captured by a French privateer.

On her passage, exchanged a shot or two with a Freuch privateer; but the weight of Washington's metal, induced her to sheer off.

A gentleman on board the Washington informs us, that a salute was fired by all the armed American vessels at Laguira, on the receipt of Commodore Truxton's victory.

We were yesterday favoured with several files of London papers to the 9th of Feb. brought by the British Packet Weymouth, from Falmouth, and the Fair American, 44 days from Portsmouth. Extracts will be found in the preceding columns of this day's paper. and will be continued to-morrow.

MORE WAR!

Extract of a letter from Alicant, to a respectable house in Boston, dated Jan. 7, 1799.

"The Algerines have become very numerous in these seas, and are very strict since their declaration of war against the French; the Consul, merchants, and all French people of every description in Algiers, were put into chains, and are kept at work as captives. On Christmas day six Algerine corsairs sailed with orders from the Dey to capture all French vessels they may meet; and he has sent a party to surprize a factory, the French have established on the coast for the coral fishery, and bring them all in chains to Algiers. All this in consequence of the Grand Seignior's request, made by his Ambassador arrived at Algiers, 20th Dec. The Tunisians also, in obedience to the Grand Seignior's desire, have engaged to act with the Algerines; and the Dey has sent to the government of Tunis to have all the French secured in that place, which at present are about 250; they will all be made slaves, and it is presumed the Tripolitans will also declare war against the French, and that Morocco will follow their example. This news has just arrived by express, two days from Algiers. sent by consul O Brien to consul Montgomery."

From a London paper of Feb. 5.

General Maitland, accompanyed by Colonel Grant, have set out on their appointments, the first, it is said, to succeed Lord Balcarras as Governor of Jamaica, and the other to be the British Resident in St. Domingo.—They are certainly the two men the best qualified for the impo tant stations, for it is only by a perfect co-operation between the commander of Jamaica and our agent at St. Domingo, that the advantages flowing from a treaty with Touss int can be secured. The vigour. skill, activity of General give the Maitland best chance of success in that important quarter of the worl, and the appointment does credit to its advisers.

It is reported on the Continent that one of the motives which constantly induces the King of Prussia to refuse entering into the new coalition is, the belief that Austria only waits for the moment when he shall be at war with France, in order to make her peace with that power upon any terms, and to leave Prussia alone in the contest.

The Factor, late Kemp, from New-York, arrived here on Saturday;—on the passage she fell in with a French privateer, of 22 guns, who ordered the Americans to come on board, and bring his leters which he complied with; whilst on board the Frenchman a gale of wind coming on, the Factor (in which was the owner) immediately made sail, and in spite of every effort of the enemy, outsailed him, and made his escape.

We have strong reason to believe, the privateer has since been captured, as several American letters have arrived here by way of Plymouth, on which was written "per ship Factor."

BERLIN, Jan. 5.

The public papers have exaggerated the warlike preparations in the Prussian states, and the march of the troops, The garrison of Wesel has been reinforced with a battalion, and that of Ham with two; but after erecting three batteries in the front of the Isle of Buderich, the works which were carrying on there have ceased. No movement is made by the army of demarcation; and though some disposittions have been ordered which seemed to announce the march of 60,000 men, their execution has been so slow and the inclination of this Cabinet towards peace so marked, that every thing indicates it will not change its system.

By ROBERT PROUD,

In two octavo volumes

A work entirely new, original, and highly interesting; embellished with a Portrait of the head of WILLIAM PENN, and a new Map of Pennsylvania, New-Jersey, Maryland, and the State of Delaware, and parts adjacent.

IN this publication are exhibited the remarkable rise, happy progress, and extraordinary prosperity of that province, till near the time of the declared independency of the United States of America; effected by such uncommon and pacific means such singular, just and prudent policy, as appear no where in the history of nations, to have so generally, and so extensively prevailed in any other country, to an equal degree of advancement, importance, and felicity of the people, and is generally to have excited the admiration of all observers, as in the flourishing and happy state of the province of Pennsylvania:—proper to be known and remembered by all those, who wish to be informed in the extraordinary melioration of this country, and in the means of rendering the inhabitants so happy and prosperous in former time; as well as an egregious example for posterity and surrounding states to imitate and improve upon, &c.

From Northampton.

The army marched in perfect health on Wednesday morning, 5 o'clock, from Allen Town for Greenmier's, near the Blue Mountain, in Lynn township, Northampton. Some persons in Penn township were to be apprehended, which induced the General to approach the Mountains. As no evidence of hostility or violence was apprehended, it is believed that the business will be soon accomplished there. After which, it is supposed, the troops will return by the way of Hamburgh, through Berks county; many parts of that county having evidenced a seditious temper, though it has not arrived at the disgraceful crisis exhibited in Northampton.

It is probable the army will return through Reading, and visit some disturbed parts of Bucks and Montgomery in their march home, where they will arrive in all probability the middle or latter end of next week. We are informed by a gentleman who has been continually with the troops, that their conduct has not only been irreproachable, but remarkable for discipline and good order through the whole course of their march. It appears that the violence of the deluded people of that country is completely subdued, and many of them begin to be sensible of their error; though too many are in a state of sullenness which time only and the punishment of the most atrocious offenders at least, will remove.

A SPECIMEN OF SUBLIMITY SUBLIMATED.

THE plenilunicular orb had just emerged from the cerulian abyss of the expansive ocean. The mild radiance of her beams resplendant, gamboled eccentric on the verge of the horizon, suffusing ineffable tranquillity through the love-lorn breast of the contemplative philosophic philanthropist. The dimpled surface of a capacious reservoir of aquatic particles, gently agitated by aromatic nocturnal zephyrs, reflected the placid rays of NIGHT'S BEAUTEOUS REGENT. The tremulous undulations, resplendently luciferous, illumed by Cynthian emanations, surpassed the scintillating corruscations which gaily gilded the gorgeous gems, so glaring at Golconda. What raptures extatic thrilled the glowing bosom of the amorous Alsander, when through the attenuated, semiluminated, intervening, verdurous foliage, the celestial semblance of lovely Lauretta arrested attention! the peerless Goddess, in a most fascinating attitude, of delicate demideclination, sat secluded beneath the frondiferous opacity, where pliant woodbine, romantically variegated, with a multifarious diversity of circumrotative and curvilineal ramifications, most delectably mantled the vivid circumference of a beatifical alcove. Would you form an idea of lovely Lauretta?

Recollect the gay tints, of the cloud dappl'd morn,
The FLAME CINCTURED, MULTIHU'D arch in the sky;
When bright burnish'd beauties creation adord—
THEY ARE ALL ONE DULL BLANK, WHEN COMPARED TO HER EYE.

Go, gaze at the charms of this Goddess complete,
From the sole of her head, to the crown of her feet,
For a primary seraph, you doubtless would take her,
And swear HEAV'N WASH UMMAG'D FOR MATTER TO MAKE HER.

Oft had the enamoured Alsander, smitten by the arrows of chubby fac'd cupid, secretly heav'd the poignant unavailing sigh of lurid anguish. Oft had his plaintively languishing strains harmonic taught solitary woodlands, to revibrate symphonious echoes, in unison, sweetly responsive, to the wild, melodious, warbling, rhapsodical carols of love! The Goddess of hope, though often delusive, yet flattering ever, now ventured to prompt the sad hearted swain, to annunciate to the divinely amiable object of his fondest wishes, what thrilling sensations of rapturous love extatic, glowed intensely ardent in the abstruse recesses, of his palpitating breast, convulsively sugultating, with ceaseless solicitude! still did hesitating timidity, approximating murky despondency, with the frigorific hand of pallid anxiety impose the ferrugeneous shackles of that soul damping diffidence, which precludes any origin to amorous utterance!

Sales at Auction.

On Saturday the 20th April, at 2 o'clock P. M. on the premises,

Sundry Building and Garden Lots,

Some of them contigious to, and others at a small distance from the city, containing from about one quarter of an acre to about four acres each. The small lots front on Vine and Callowhill Streets, near Schuylkill—the large lots front on the south side of Francis Street, on the east side of Schuylkill river, on the west side of Schuylkill, second street, and on intermediate streets—the whole containing about 140 acres, being part of the tract known by the name of Springettsbury.

The situation of many of the lots is on high ground, commanding views of the Schuylkill, and supposed to be so much detached from the built parts of the city, as to be out of danger in case of an unhappy return of the fever.

Maps shewing the division of the ground, may be seen at the Coffee-house, at Ogden's tavern in Chesnut street, at Sybert's tavern in the Nothern Liberties, and at the Middle and Upper Ferries on Schuylkill.

The abundance of stone, for building, on part of the ground, will prove very advantageous to purchasers, as it is proposed to sell at the same time those large quarries on the east side of the Schuylkill, near and above the bridge.

The terms will be cash for the lots of 49 1-2 and 50 feet front, and for those of a larger size one half cash immediately, and the other half to be paid in six months from the day of sale.

A Pleasant Retreat.

To be sold at public vendue.

By order of the Orphan's Court of Montgomery County on the 17th day of the fourth month next. at 7 o'clock in the evening, at the Merchants Coffee house, in Philadelphia.

The following described capital house and lots situated in Potts Town, about 36 miles from Philadelphia, being part of the estate of Thomas Mayburry, deceased.

The Mansion house standing on the Main streets, built with stone and the best materials, commodiously divided into rooms and well finished throughout—with an airy entry and good cellars, forty-two feet in front and thirty six feet in depth—adjoining is a Stone Piazza, stove room and kitchen with lodging rooms over them—a well of good water in the yard—and a stone milk house with a smoke house over it—a good garden, &c. on the south end of the lot are a brew house, carriage house and a large stone barn—with extensive stables for horses, cows &c.

This estate would accommodate a large genteel family inclining to retire into the country. Potts Town being one of the cheapest places for provisions within the same distance from Philadelphia—and for healthy situation, conveniences of stages, &c is equal to most inland towns in Pennsylvania

With the foregoing premises will be sold, a Lot of excellent CLOVER LAND, adjoining the Barn, containing about three Acres, in which are a number of Apple Trees.

Further particulars may be known on application to Rebecca Mayburry, on the premises, John Warder, or James Vaux, in Philadelphia. } Administrators to the estate of Thomas Mayburry, deceased.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber this day, at noon, two mulatto house Servants, viz. Ned, but commonly called Edward among his companions, well known as the subscriber's coachman and waiting man for several years in this city and in New-York—he is a tall strait made mulatto with a large bushy head of hair, about 32 years of age, has a low forehead, with small eyes, a sullen dark look and is much inclined to be abrupt and insolent, one of his legs something smaller than the other from a fracture in his youth; he generally wears a brown cloth coatee with red cuffs and cape and red edging, or fustian with red cuffs and cape; had on when he went away an old forest cloth surtout, mix'd brown and yellow, and has a box coat of light colored drab, with red and white livery lace, but as I do not know what other clothes he had on, may change his dress.

Nelly, calling herself Wife to the before named Ned, she is much above the middle stature, strait made with falling shoulders, has a remarkable ferocious countenance and is very pallionate, quarrelsome, and noisy, she is rather a fair mulatto—has lost one or two of her front teeth, which she supplies with wax, and has a large scar between her shoulders occasioned by a blister; she is about forty five years of age, has a very masculine air in her walk, she carried away with her several gowns of different colored cotton; the above reward will be given for apprehending and securing them in any Jail in the United States and giving notice to the subscriber; or fifty dollars for securing either of them.——All persons are cautioned against harboring, entertaining, or concealing the above servants or either of them; and all masters of vessels and others are warned against carrying them from the United States,

JACOB READ.
